"There is no other experience to equal an Earthbound Expeditions journey. We were treated to the best seats at concerts, some arranged just for us in unique locations. The hotels were wonderful, the restaurants were real "finds" and the local guides knew their cities intimately. Can't wait for my next adventure with Earthbound."

"First of all, let me reiterate what Matthew and the amazing team at Earthbound said: it was a real pleasure to travel with you. Meeting you all and hearing your stories was not only enchanting, but many of the stories were from your earlier Earthbound trips! I don't know a better endorsement for a travel company than having so many veterans. Certainly it was impressive to watch Matthew at his job, being so completely thorough in his availability, clarity, care-giving, and a supernatural talent for getting us around beautiful tables with memorable meals. That last one in Orvieto above the Etruscan caves will never leave me."

"The high point of the trip? Was it the pairing of the salmon carpaccio with the Gavi di Gavi at Harry's Bar in Venice? Or was it looking up at the Oculus in the Pantheon, standing under the world's largest unreinforced concrete dome that was built more than 1800 years ago? Maybe it was sharing beautiful sunsets with like-minded travelers in a country where I felt welcomed, encouraged, and respected."
